

RVHEA Annual Conference

Last Updated Wednesday, 21 April 2010

The association hosts an annual homeschooling conference and curriculum fair. The conference brings together experienced speakers, quality vendors and homeschooling families from across Ontario and other parts of Canada. RVHEA is pleased to present its 20th annual Conference Homeschooling Conference 2010 Friday and Saturday, April 16 & 17, 2010

Kanata Baptist Church
465 Hazeldean Road
Kanata, Ontario

Friday, April 16, 6:30 - 9:00

20th Anniversary Celebration 6:30 - Registration

6:55 - Welcome - Sanctuary

7:00 - Ellen Hackett - RVHEA - Looking Back Marking Milestones

7:15 - Mike and Marnie Goheen - Why We Home Educated - And Why We'd Do It Again

8:00 - Paul Faris - HSLDA - Canadian Home School Retrospective

8:30 - Barb Glennie in Concert - Recording Artist and Home Schooling Mom Saturday, April 17, 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

RVHEA 20th annual conference Michael Goheen will be presenting the keynote address:

Which Story Is Shaping Your Education - Part I? Michael Goheen is Geneva Professor of Worldview and Religious Studies at Trinity Western University, Langley, B.C., and Teaching Fellow in Mission Studies at Regent College, Vancouver, B.C. He holds a Ph.D. from the University of Utrecht. He is co-author (with Craig Bartholomew) of The Drama of Scripture: Finding Our Place in the Biblical Story (Baker, 2004), and Living at the Crossroads: An Introduction to Christian Worldview (Baker, 2008). Michael has been married to Marnie for 30 years. They have four grown 'children' ranging in age from 22-28, two sons-in-law, one daughter-in-law, and one grandchild. Mike will also be presenting three other seminars:

Which Story Is Shaping Your Education - Part II

A Session for Dads - One Family's Journey

The Use of the Bible in Home Education For recordings of the 2010 conference, please download the conference audio recording order form available as a PDF file at this link. Recordings of recent RVHEA conference sessions are available at this link. A promotional poster for the RVHEA 2010 conference is available as a PDF file at this link. The registration form for the RVHEA 2010 conference and further details are available as a PDF file at this link.