

Rideau Valley Home Educators' Association

is pleased to present its 28th Annual Conference

Homeschooling Conference 2018

Saturday, April 21st, 2018
8:00 am – 4:30 pm

Kanata Baptist Church
465 Hazeldean Road, Kanata
West end of Ottawa
Parking is limited

Join us for a day of workshops, vendors, information, encouragement and fellowship. We are privileged to feature Dr. Brian and Betsy Ray this year. Dr. Ray is the founder of the National Home Education Research Institute. He and his wife will deliver the keynote address as well as several other seminars. We are also planning sessions for those considering homeschooling as an alternative, those who have just started homeschooling, seasoned homeschoolers needing a fresh perspective or motivation to finish the year, those interested in teaching high school at home, those teaching children with learning disabilities, homeschooled teens, dads of homeschooled kids and more. There will be all day youth sessions for ages 13+. We hope to see you at the Eastern Ontario's largest exhibition of homeschool resources.

8:00 Registration, Vendor Hall Opens

8:30 Conference Opening Address and HSLDA Updates

9:00 – 10:00 Keynote Address – Dr. Brian and Betsy Ray

10:30 All seminar sessions begin

Conference Fees (includes Vendor Hall)

Spouse attends free	Early Bird	Regular	At the door
RVHEA Member	$35	$45	$50
Non-member	$40	$50	$55
Pastors & Missionaries	$20	$25	$30
Teen (13 and up)	$10	$10	$15

Vendor Hall Only Pass: $15 at 10:00 a.m., $10 after 3:00 p.m.

- 18 workshops to choose from
- Over 30 exhibitors in the vendor hall
- Early Bird online registration deadline – March 24th.
- Cash, cheque or credit card accepted at the door
- Nursing babies are welcome, please arrange childcare for all other children 12 and under

For more information contact:
conference@rvhea.org

For registration and seminar/vendor updates visit:
www.rvhea.org